THE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

Selection of a Day for Election of Delegates to the Chicago Convention.

The second meeting of the reorganized republican central committee was held at Association hall, 632 Pennsylvania avenue, last night. Mr. A. M. Clapp presided, with Prof. R. T. Greener as secretary. Before proceeding to business Mr. Clapp thanked the committee, in a neat address, for the honor conferred upon him by his election. "Had I not been elected," he said, "I should have been just as thoroughly wedded to republicanism. The first body of gentlemen as yet can find in the district, and I am proud to preside over it."

The president was directed by vote to appoint a finance committee of three and an executive committee of seven members. Respectively Messrs. George Holmes, J. H. Smith, Charles F. Mosby, Wm. H. Chase, and Marcellus West were appointed a committee to consider the call of the national republican committee, and determine the date upon which the several district organizations shall meet and select delegates to the district convention, which will elect delegates to the Chicago convention. The committee subsequently made the following report:

"That the election of delegates to the district convention for the election of the Chicago convention be held on the evening of April 7, 1884, at 7:30 o'clock, and that the presidents of the several republican clubs be authorized to call meetings and resolve themselves into a mass meeting and elect five delegates and three alternates, and that the convention be held April 8 at 10 o'clock a. m.; that a hall be secured by the chairman of the central committee; that the presidents of the several district republican clubs be empowered to secure hall in their respective districts; and that it shall be advertised in at least one daily paper."

The chairman announced the following committee: Executive—E. W. Whitcraft, Ralph Wormley, Joseph Brooks, Capt. A. H. Smith, George Holmes, Perry H. Carson, and William H. Chase. Finance committee—J. H. Smith, Prof. R. T. Greener, and Capt. Donald McCallahan.

Mr. Joseph Williams, a former resident of the district, but now of Colorado, addressed the meeting.

Messrs. Atkinson and George Holmes also addressed the committee.

The resolutions arraigning certain senators and others were laid on the table by a majority of 1 vote for future consideration. The committee then adjourned.

The aesthetic movement in England has entirely died out, because—well because people do not have more good common sense in taking to the Bull's Cough Syrup than in carrying a Lily.

The Murder Cases.

In the criminal court yesterday Judge Wiley inquired as to the cases of homicide to be tried. The prosecuting attorney promised an early day.

At the court, said the inquiry was prompted by the law in reference to murder trials. The accused was entitled to a list of the jurors, with witnesses and indictment, two days before trial, and this list should be composed of twenty-six names drawn from the box. The present panel was not so composed, seven having been excused and their places filled by talesmen or by strangers picked up by the marshal. To comply with the law he would direct that seven names be drawn from the box, so as to have a full panel drawn from the box, and thus have a perfect list to present to the parties to be tried. He directed the return to be made on Monday.

Mr. Taggart called attention to the fact that the jury box is to be turned over to the commission this week, so that it can be replenished before the March term convenes, and if the panel was exhausted there might be some trouble experienced in getting access to the box.

Judge Wiley said it would be time enough to meet the trouble when it should arise. The clerk drew the following names to complete the panel: Levi Woodbury, St. James hotel; Thomas A. Wiltberger, near Queens-town; Thomas A. Watson, 1785 K street northwest; E. F. Mix, 1735 Twenty-second street northwest; Charles Worthington, 1028 Seventeenth street northwest; John Goldin, 519 Market space; W. D. Wyvill, 206 E street northwest.

MR. CHRIS. XANDER has received by the steamer Minerva, arrived at New York, imported from the East a large quantity of fine old sherry, expressly commended by physicians in sickness. The brands received include vintage of '62, Montillaud, the Oloroso & Superior, and south street n. w. also, the very finest liquors and wines of all kinds.

Vital Statistics.

The number of deaths occurring during the week was 114—51 whites and 63 colored—the rate of mortality per 1,000 per annum being 20.29 for the white, 47.37 for the colored, and 34.64 for the total population. There were 34 deaths from zymotic diseases, 29 from constitutional, 50 from local, 8 from developmental, 1 from unknown cause, and 2 from violence. The principal causes of death were consumption, 33; pneumonia, 20; cholera, 9; scarlet fever, 8; measles, 10; whooping cough, 2; and congestion of lungs, 2. Of the decedents 12 white and 6 colored were over 60 years of age, 19 white and 31 colored were under 5 years of age, and 1 white and 1 colored were under 1 year of age. Marriages reported, 27 white and 2 colored; births reported, 25 white males, 22 white females, 15 colored males, and 14 colored females; stillbirths, 2 white and 2 colored. The deaths from consumption, 33, or 29 per cent, of the total. This fearful scourge still maintains its dreadful supremacy. The total deaths from all pulmonary diseases were 47, or 41 per cent, of the total. In other words, very nearly one-half of the deaths resulted from pulmonary diseases.

Important Notice. The delicious flavor of the Seal Skin Cigar is not due to drugs. It is given as a result of the finest Havana Tobacco, properly recombined. BARBOUR & HAMILTON, Wholesale Agents.

A Dance in Bedlam.

A novel dancing party took place at the government insane asylum last night. The dancers comprised several sets of inmates, who went through the evolutions in different manners. The females were more graceful than the males, and as a rule they were tastefully attired. One of the males received considerable inspiration from the music and went through the figures of a quadrille in a very lively manner. One of the females, a very pretty young lady, with large expressive eyes, danced with exceeding grace. The orchestra furnishes popular music, and many of the patients look forward with delight to their social dances. Quite a delegation of ladies and gentlemen from this city witnessed the affair. Afterward they partook of a lunch which had been prepared by the resident physicians.

A CARD.—We will continue our great semi-annual sale of fine goods during the week ending Ten pieces of fine colored silks, $1, worth $1.25. Prices reduced throughout the store. W. B. Burt, 925 Seventh street and 706 E street northwest.

The Wind After the Rain.

Old Boreas turned loose his legions on this city yesterday and the wind howled around the houses and corners until far into the night. Sad havoc was played with the telephone wires, which caused a mixing of conversation in some cases. Several sign boards were blown down, and it was reported that one or two small boats were blown from their moorings along the river front. The construction of the wires was quickly dried and the loose dirt and straw hustled off in a rather brisk manner. Old citizens remarked that it was the "clearing-up wind after three months of snow, rain, fog, and mist."

DR. PIERCE'S "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired, and they are always fresh and reliable. No cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. By druggists.

A South Washington Wedding. The wedding of Mr. George H. Dicks, of Sidney, Ohio, and Miss Mary R. Frazer, the stepdaughter of Mr. Christopher Dickson, took place yesterday afternoon at St. Dominic's church. Rev. Father Hogan performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in brown silk, with broad plume trimming, with hat to match. She wore natural flowers on her bosom. Mr. and Mrs. Dicks will in a few weeks go to the home of the groom, where they will reside.

AT THE EPIPHANY.

Marriage of Dr. Fry and Miss Gertrude Campbell.

A social event of the week was the marriage of Miss Gertrude M. Campbell and Dr. Henry Davidson Fry last evening at the Church of the Epiphany. The organist played several selections while waiting for the bridal couple. Shortly after 7 o'clock the organ announced the arrival of the expected guests. The ceremony was according to the English custom. Rev. Dr. Paret, pastor, assisted by Revs. McElroy and Griffith, officiated.

The bride was dressed in white satin, trimmed with duchesse lace, diamond ornaments, and carried a large bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. The bridesmaids wore dressed alike, in white French muslin, with large white satin sashes, and carried bouquets of choice cut flowers. They were as follows: Misses Nannie and Edith Campbell, sisters of the bride; Miss Mary Suter, Miss Lizzie Jones, Miss Laura Waller, and Miss Hannah Kelly. The groom's best man was Mr. Bradley Davidson. The ushers were Drs. McArdle, Adams, Cuthbert Clark Patterson, and Henderson Suter. Mrs. Campbell, the mother of the bride, was seated in black silk. Mrs. Fry, the mother of the groom, was also dressed in black silk, as was Mrs. Kennedy, the grandmother of the bride. Mr. James A. Briggs, of New York, gave the bride away.

The organist played the wedding march from Lohengrin when the bride and groom entered the church, and on leaving Mendelssohn's wedding march. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Kennedy, 115 I street. Among the ladies assisting in receiving the guests, who were mainly immediate friends and relatives, was Mrs. Blanche Towson, nee Campbell. Among those present were Mr. Webb, Col. Wilson, U. S. A., and wife, Rev. Dr. Paret, Elliot, Ingle, McElroy, and Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Warner, Miss Warner, Mr. and Mrs. H. Moore, Mrs. A. W. Humphreys, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. James A. Briggs, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Dr. and Mrs. Patterson, Miss Patterson, Dr. Davis, of Michigan; Miss Maggie Clark, Mr. Andrews, Mrs. Waller, Miss Lelia Waller, Mrs. Charles Bradley, The Misses Bradley, Mrs. Jones, Mr. and F. Braunling, of Washington territory; Dr. Barnard, Miss Cammie Chew, Mrs. Caroline Cushing, of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Julia Parsons, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. James Caperton, the Misses Tolston, Miss Frisette, Mrs. John Jay Knox, Miss Minor, Dr. A. Sidney Tebb, and others. Many presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Fry left on the 9:30 p. m. train for a trip to the east, and on their return will visit New Orleans and other cities of the south.

The Prohibition Convention.

The delegates to the American prohibition convention held an informal meeting yesterday forenoon. Hon. S. C. Pomeroy was chosen chairman. The committee was organized on resolutions, platform, and the names to be presented for nomination as president of the United States. The name of Gen. O. O. Howard was objected to as a candidate for president, because he was a member of the Sons of Temperance.

The session was called to order by J. P. Stoddard, of Illinois, who stated the objects of the convention. Hon. S. C. Pomeroy was elected chairman and took the chair. The following gentlemen were elected lecturers: S. C. Pomeroy, of New Hampshire; Rev. Mr. Brooks, of Philadelphia, and W. J. Phillips, of Chicago. Committees were nominated as follows: On enrollment, on finance, on business, on nominations of president and vice president of the United States, and on platform and resolutions.

Prof. E. D. Bailey, of Washington, then addressed the meeting. He said that Charles Sumner once declared that "the two great enemies to freedom were slavery and Masonry."

Chamberlin.

CHAMBERLIN'S

SOUTHEAST CORNER FIFTEENTH AND I STREETS.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

The proprietor of this elegant Restaurant establishment announces to the public of Washington and the country at large that he has made extensive additions, including the elegant building adjoining him formerly occupied by Governor Swann.

This portion of the establishment has been elegantly furnished, the lower floor being especially for ladies and their escorts, and the upper rooms conveniently arranged for private dinner parties.

No pains are to be spared to make this equal in every respect to the restaurant in New York made famous by Delmonico.

The whole establishment is now open for the reception of guests.

"Are Your Camels Tied?" A small but select audience attended the lecture given on last evening at Masonic temple for the benefit of the sufferers through the recent floods. Minnehaha lodge of Good Templars, under whose auspices the lecture was given, has shown in this, as in all its undertakings, a desire to prove a public benefactor, and for the sake of the needy beneficiaries it is to be regretted that the attendance was not much larger. Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, in a short opening address, referred to the terrible devastation and suffering caused by the western floods, and closed by introducing the lecturer, Mrs. E. B. Russell, who received an enthusiastic reception. The story of the travelers through the desert was utilized as a text for a brilliant lecture upon temperance and prohibition, and the question "Are Your Camels Tied?" was forcefully and forcibly impressed upon every one present. The lectures sustained the reputation she has gained in the west, and her earnestness and intelligence are likely to prove valuable to the cause she espouses.

Burnside Post Camp Fire. Commander Alexander and staff, of the Grand Army of the Republic, paid an official visit to Burnside Post, No. 8, last night. The post was attended by about 500 persons, composed of members of the Grand Army from all parts of the country. Senator Logan delivered an eloquent address on the conduct of the soldiers in the late war, and was followed by Capt. S. H. Garrett, Gen. Thomas Post, of Nashville, Tenn.; Gen. M. J. Smith, of Post No. 3, of Memphis, Tenn.; J. C. Stacy, Hon. B. M. Cutchson, of Michigan, and others.

Judge Aldin's Dinner. A dinner was given last night by Judge Aldin at Welcker's to the following distinguished guests: Mr. Eisenacker, the German minister; Senator Edmunds, Chief Justice Waite, Gen. Sheridan, Gov. Boutwell, Secretary Frelinghuysen, Judge Bradley, Mr. John A. King, Marquis Chamberlin, Gen. Motellan, Baron Arinos M. Le Faivre, and Gov. Stewart.

The Custer Sons of Veterans. A large meeting of George A. Custer post, No. 1, Sons of Veterans, was held last evening. The resignation of Lieut. John Morrison was received and accepted. The post will leave on Friday morning at 10 o'clock for Alexandria, to take part in the parade on that day.
